

Ebook, available from Amazon on Dec 20, 2014, www.emeraldpademelonpress.com.

The story of a conspiracy created by forces close to the government of President Joseph Kabila, who was in charge of security when President Laurent Kabila was assassinated in 1997, and who is president of a country in which he does not sleep, ever.

All witnesses at the trial of 20 good men pointed to Colonel Zeeman as the source of information. Colonel Zeeman is Superintendent (Counter Terrorism) at South African Police Service, Organized Crime.

Together with other cops, Colonel Zeeman represented himself as a senior government official offering training and certification in an anti-rhino-poaching camp in Limpopo. They used SA police resources to lure 19 good men into a trap where they were arrested in a hail of bullets on Feb 5, 2013.

Lies disseminated through international media demanded Etienne Kabila give himself up, and he did on Feb 8, 2013, in Capetown

The lies of three South African cops put 20 men in jail for 661 days, charged with “military assistance and conspiracy to commit murder”.

Colonel Zeeman’s fabricated charges are that 20 good men with no military background, no criminal record, planned a coup d’etat against Congo while they were working hard to feed their families in Johannesburg and Capetown.

On Nov 28, 2014

-15 men were declared innocent of all charges and released

-5 remain in jail, of which 1 was released on bail the next day

Twenty good men, most university graduates: one on vacation from Congo, one on vacation from USA:

1. Computer technician, Chadrien Kabuka Lubagaba Kilele
2. Computer technician, Mukiti Kilele
3. Musician, supermarket manager Angbongi Tenda Mulomba Nelka
4. Accounting graduate, human resources professional Musasa Tshibangu
5. American college graduate living in Delaware: James Kazongo
6. Congo honors graduate, academic Pastor David Muyembe Bakajika
7. Small business owner, former medical student, South African university graduate Patrick Lunula Masikini
8. Simon Mbuyi Mukuna,
9. James Jacob Mapimi
10. Jean-Paul Tambwe
11. Communications graduate, DRC-Congo Govt Mining inspector Olivier Amuli-Safari
12. John Malako
13. Alain Yoka Maniema
14. Jean-Pierre Lerulwaba
15. University graduate Eric Zabinga Muboto
16. Apolinaire Mahele
17. Felly Basila
18. Congo commerce graduate Yangu Joe Ngesi
19. Kakesa Mutombo.
20. Son of assassinated President Laurent Kabila, economics graduate Etienne Kabila

Olivier Amuli-Safari, Oct 2014

I was accused 05. My name is Olivier Amuli-Safari. I am 40. I am a trained professional with a university degree in communications, I am a married father of two children.

After graduating from University of Lubumbashi DRC-Congo IN 2008, I was hired as entry level agent for DRC-Congo administration. First, in the Department of Energy in 2010 as an inspector of AT B2 (Agent de bureau 2) This office was in Lubumbashi, Katanga Province.

Second, I started work at the Department of Mining in 2011. I held the same title in my new department (Mining) this department was in the same district in Lubumbashi.

Six months later on September 2011, I was transferred to a different department of Mining BI (Bureau Isole) meaning isolated office, in the district of Lualaba, in Kolwezi. I lived on Avenue Lumumba, no. 778. My office is in Manika district.

About the circumstance of leaving DRC-Congo and my arrest in South Africa with 19

www.emeraldpademelonpress.com

Congolese. It was my vacation time, I had decided to go to South Africa for vacation, to stay with a good friend whom I knew in Lubumbashi, DRC-Congo in 2009.

My good friend, accused 04 Chadrien Kabuka-Lugaba-Kilele, in his house in Johannesburg told me about anti-rhino poaching training in Limpopo Province South Africa. For the South African government, he was recruiting for the training that was supposed to last for 7 weeks. Upon the completion of the training we were supposed to received a certificate and a lump sum.

For each trainee, I was told by Chadrien, there will be opportunities for employment, as security in the farms in South Africa.

I don't condemn him by writing this statement: he was lied to by South African cops.

So I wanted to use my vacation time to get the Certificate and money and go back to DRC-Congo, that cash will help for my financial situation, and certificate will be a good tool to find a new employment which was supposed to bring me higher wages.

Minister of Environmental and Naturel Protection was my goal because the Environmental department is financed by UNESCO especially ICCN (Institut Congolais pour la conservation de la nanature) is the only institution that manage all DRC-Congo national parks.

DRC-Congo and Amazon forest are considered the World patrimony that was the main reason I was interested in that training. That Certificate was very important for me. That was the main reason I had decided to go with others for that training instead of just wasting my vacation on doing nothing.

On Monday February 4th, 2013, we were all kidnapped by undercover cops wearing uniforms with a logo "anti-rhino poaching".

Now, I cannot return to DRC-Congo. One of our accusers was the DRC Minister of Mines: he told the courts we are all coup plotters, because South African police told him we were.